

RECALCULATING...

TOM WILDENHAIN, JACQUI FASHIMPAUR

You find a GPS in the plane's cockpit, but it must be broken. It seems to think it's in a different place... You can follow most of its instructions, but sometimes it needs to recalculate.

NOTE: The time machine is located in the top left corner. To time travel, click the preview after setting the slider. Do not time travel unless explicitly instructed to do so. The month and year you are in are located in the bottom right corner of the screen.
