

Rollercoaster Stamp Card

It's come to your attention now that none of the rollercoasters at Puzzlehunt Carnival have been functioning. It's rumored that those who board the rollercoasters never return. You've visited the sides of all the rollercoasters and recieved a stamp on your stamp card at each location. You look up at the heights of the marvelous, enormous, lumbering wooden rollercoasters, and back down at the stamp card, and try to figure it out.
