

How Can We Communicate?

Jacqui Fashimpaur, Liam Thomas

Each of the songs were parodied on the TV show "Bill Nye the Science Guy", as clued by the flavor text "chanting of the word Bill" and "Science Guy". Each of the science topics of the song parodies are conceptually related to one of the six feeder answers. By drawing a line between the letter which begins a feeder answer on the left and the letter which ends the same answer on the right - like plugging wires into a switchboard - the line will cross over one number. Using this number to index into the lyrics of the parody song - 45 would pull the 45th word, for instance - one obtains the cluephrase "A MELTED METAL FOR FUSING THINGS", or SOLDER.
